A CLOWN...

is a word which means “clod” and we all know what God did with a clod, a lump of earth.

uses make-up symbolically, with the white face representing death and the brightly colored markings meaning life. Together they make a facial statement of the journey from death to life while laughing at death.

knows that reverence is not always being somber and that seriousness is not always being stuffy.

understands the parent image we give to God, and therefore acts out of child likeness.

senses that the church often talks religion to death, and seeks to simply be an action communicating the “Word” of God.

was an active Christian symbol for a number of centuries, prior to the 12th. Called at times a divine interrupter showing the church that she shouldn't take herself so seriously, a clown fulfills a unique prophetic ministry which often gets one into trouble!

as a word is nearest to the Greek work “doulos” in the New Testament, which is the lowliest, meekest servant. Remember what Jesus said we had to become?

thanks you for being you.

loves you.
